Great Wine, Any Time<sup>TM</sup>

CARING FOR TODAY
& TOMORROW:

- Aluminum bottles are 100% recyclable
- In the U.S., aluminum is recycled at a rate of 50%, compared to plastic and glass, which are reprocessed at under 25%
- Compared to glass bottles, the carbon footprint is reduced by 35% due to lighter case weight during shipping

FLASQ AVAILABILITY:

- Regional distributors servicing the retail marketplace in 20 states
- Co-branded options available (minimum quantities apply)

WINERY:

Since its inception in April 2008, JT Wines has specialized in signature wine production and exclusive labels for world-renowned brands. JT Wines has access to some of the best grapes and wine from such locales as Napa and Sonoma Valleys to vineyards in Argentina and Chile.

The production headquarters for FLASQ Wines is The Ranch Winery – Napa Valley’s largest entitled winery, producing up to 12.5 million gallons of wine per year. This custom-crush facility provides barrel storage, bottling and winemaking services.
